

Ceratochilus biglandulosus

Native of: Java

Habitat: It prefers exposed branches of isolated trees in mountain grassland from 1000 – 2000m altitude.

Description: A miniature plant up to 10m tall with large single translucent white flowers.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we have grown this intermediate (min.12°C) and mounted with lots of air movement.

Flowering season: Any time of year.

Flask to flowering approx: 1 year.

Seed source: Bob and Paddy Dadd