

Neofinetia falcata (pink form)

Native of: Japan and Korea

Habitat: Growing on trees in deciduous forest.

Description: A small sized plant with 10cm leaves and 2cm flowers with long spurs carried on short spikes in bunches of up to 6 flowers. The normal form of this species is white, this is seed from the much sought after pink form.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow have tried growing this species cool (min 10°C) and intermediate (min12°C) but have yet to master its culture.

Flowering season: Spring and summer

Flask to flowering approx: 3-4yrs.

Seedling source: Kath Fairhurst