

Paphiopedilum druryi

Native of: South India but probably extinct in the wild.

Habitat: Terrestrial, growing on rocks in full sun or shaded by grass and scrub.

Description: A small plant with leaves up to 15cm long with 20cm flower stems and single flowers 7-8cm across.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow this species hot (min. 18°C) through out the year in medium light.

Flowering season: Summer

Flask to flowering approx: 4yrs.

Seed source: Commercial nursery