

Zygopetalum mackayi

Native of: Brazil

Habitat: Found in huge colonies growing on exposed, cleared ground in leaf litter. A plant of the mountain fields and ridges 1000m

Description: This large terrestrial plant has a scent which is peppery & not sweet.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow this cool (min.10°C) in good light and air movement.

Flowering season : ?

Flask to flowering approx: 4years

Seedling source: Bob & Paddy Dadd