

Lemboglossum bictoniense

Native of: Mexico to Costa Rica

Habitat: An epiphyte or terrestrial from forest between 1800 and 3000m altitude.

Description: A medium sized plant that produces upright flowers stems with up to 30 striking 5cm flowers.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow this species cool (min 10°C) and shaded in the summer. We keep plants moist throughout the year.

Flowering season Variable – mostly autumn

Flask to flowering approx. 3-4 years

Seed source: Writhlington School