

Masdevallia hybrids

Native of: Central and south America

Habitat: Derived from epiphytes from wet forest from 1000 to 2500m.

Description: A small growing plants with single flowers in a range of bright colours

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow these hybrids cool (min 10°C).

Flowering season: Various

.Plant Source: Writhlington divisions