

Cymbidium finlaysonianum

Native of: South East Asia

Habitat: A lowland species often found in exposed places near the sea.

Description: Medium to large sized plant with up to 25 flowers on a 1m long spike. Flowers are 5cm across.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow similar species warm (min.16°C) wet in the summer dryish in winter in pots.

Flowering season: Throughout the year

Flask to flowering approx: 4yrs.

Seed source: Commercial nursery