

Cyrtorchis crassifolia

Native of: Tropical Africa

Habitat: High rainfall areas growing in moss 1200 to 2000m

Description: small plant with thick leaves and relatively large white flowers on a short stem.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow similar plants mounted and coolish (min12°C) in front of a fan for good air movement and dip regularly .

Flowering season: ?

Flask to flowering approx: 2-3 yrs

Seedling source: Kath Fairhurst