

Epidendrum-marmoratum

Native of: Southern Mexico.

Habitat: An epiphyte from lowland forest

Description: A small plant with pseudobulbs up to 20cm long carrying a terminal arching spike of many 2cm flowers

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow this species warm (min.15°C).

Flowering: any time of year

Flask to flowering approx: 4yrs.

Seed source: commercial nursery