

Phragmipedium longifolium

Native of: Costa Rica, Panama, Ecuador & Colombia

Habitat: Terrestrial often growing in large clumps in shaded or open rocky areas.

Description: A medium to large plant , leaves up to 80cm long several 40cm flowers on a stem opening one at a time.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow this species warm (min.15°C) and damp in medium to low light.

Flowering season: any time of year

Flask to flowering approx: 4yrs.

Seed source: Richard Warren