

Aerides falcata

Native of: South East Asia

Habitat: An epiphyte that grows at low elevations in warm moist forest..

Description: A medium sized plant with 20cm leaves and and racemes of 3-4cm flowers.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow similar species warm (min.15°C) and in baskets.

Flowering season Spring & Summer

Flask to flowering approx. 4-5years

Seedling source: Kath Fairhurst