

Calyptrochilum christyanum

Native of: Widespread in tropical Africa

Habitat: Growing on rocks and trees in riverine forest from 900 to 1400m

Description: Leaves grow along a pendant stems up to 50cm long with inflorescences appearing along the underside of the stem with 6 to 9 flowers. The 2cm flowers smell of lemons.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow similar plants mounted and warm (min15°C).

Flowering season: not known

Flask to flowering approx: 2-3yrs

Seedling source: Kath Fairhurst