

Coelia triptera

Native of: Central America

Habitat: growing on trees or rocks from 500 – 1400m altitude.

Description: Medium sized plant with thin leaves 40cm long. The 1.5cm flowers are produced on short stems from the base of the pseudobulb. These are very fragrant.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow this species cool (min 10°C) in medium light.

Flowering season: March/April

Plant source: Writhlington Division