

Dendrobium delicatum

Native of: Australia

Habitat: A lithophyte in seasonally dry forest.

Description: This is a natural hybrid between Dendrobium kingianum and Dendrobium speciosum. A medium sized plant that grows into a specimen quite quickly. Pseudobulbs up to 50cm high carry spays of many 3cm flowers with a lovely fragrance.

Cultivation Guidance: At school this species succeeds cool (min.10°C) good light with lots of water in the summer but dryish in the winter.

Flowering season: Spring

Flask to flowering approx: 4yrs.

Seedling source – Writhlington