

Gongora galeata

Native of: Mexico

Habitat: growing on trees from 600 – 1800m altitude.

Description: Medium sized plant with thin leaves 40cm long. The 5cm flowers are produced on pendulous stems from the base of the pseudobulb. These are very fragrant.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow this species warm (min 15°C) in medium light.

Flowering season: Summer

Plant source: Writhlington Division