

Oncidium ornithorynchum

Native of: Central America

Habitat: Epiphyte in forest to 1500m.

Description: This medium sized plant is prized at Writhlington for its chocolate fragrance. Pseudobulbs produce multiple spikes up to 50cm long with many 2cm pink flowers.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we succeed with this species in warm (min 15°C) and cool (min 10 °C) conditions both mounted and in a pot.

Flowering season: Autumn

Plant source: Writhlington divisions