

Aerangis articulata

Native of: Madagascar (East coast).

Description: A small plant with a leaf spread up of to 30cm and a 20cm long inflorescence carrying up to 18 scented flowers which are of the purest white making this one of the most attractive Aerangis species.

Cultivation guidance: At school we grow this plant mounted and grow it hot (min18°C) in low light.

Flowering season: Variable.

Flask to flowering: 2-3 years.

Habitat: Epiphyte in Evergreen Forest in Eastern Madagascar.